WILLS

Many times in my search for ancestors, I have found that one of the most important records to locate is the probate records or court records that were filed after the death of that person. The type of probate record that I want to focus on at this time is the "testate" records. Testate means that a person died and left a valid will. DeKalb wills are located in the County Clerk's Office and some wills are located in the Recorder's Office. Land, property was very important to our ancestors; therefore, some wills are actually deeds to heirs for the property they owned. I am not an authority on probate records. If you have additional questions about probate records, please direct questions to the DeKalb County Clerk's Office.

welfare, and withheld his support from no movement for the good of the locality so long honored by his residence. His personal relations with his fellowmen were ever mutually pleasant and agreeable, and he was highly regarded by all, being easily approached, obliging and straightforward in all the relations of life.

FOREST MILLER.

It was remarked by a celebrated moralist and biographer that "there has scarcely passed a life of which a judicious and faithful narrative would not have been useful." Believing in the truth of this opinion, expressed by one of the greatest and best of men, the writer of this review takes pleasure in presenting a few facts in the career of a gentleman who, by industry, perseverance, temperance and integrity, has worked himself from an humble station to a successful place in life and won an honorable position among the well-known and highly esteemed men of the locality in which he resides.

Forest Miller is a native of Steuben county, Indiana, where he was born on September 20, 1875, and is a son of William Henry and Sarah (Martin) Miller. William H. Miller was born in Stark county, Ohio, and came to DeKalb county, Indiana, when nineteen years of age. In 1874 he married Sarah, the daughter of Albert Martin, and his death occurred February 5, 1906, on the homestead farm. Mr. Martin, who was a millwright by trade, lived in Steuben county, Indiana, although a native of Ohio, owning a farm in the above county, and also one in DeKalb county. Mr. Martin was a soldier in the Civil war and died in Kentucky after two years' service. His widow went to Kentucky and brought his body home and he was buried at Hamilton, Indiana. Mrs. Sarah Miller, his mother, who also was a native of Ohio, is now deceased. They were the parents of nine children, viz: Forest, the subject of this sketch; Don Carlos, William, George A., Lew, Mrs. Florence Sutherland, and three who died in infancy. Don Carlos lives on a farm in Smithfield township and also operates a threshing machine. William is married and lives in San Francisco, California. George, who also is married, lives in South Dakota, where he runs a grain elevator. Lew lives at Vancouver, Canada, and is a gas fitter by occupation. Florence became the wife of Elmer Sutherland and lives in Smithfield township, where her husband is following the farming pursuit.

life began assisting in the work on the home farm. At the age of twenty-one years he received an inheritance of thirteen hundred dollars, and thereafter was employed at various labor until twenty-six years of age, when he bought eighty acres of land in Smithfield township. After farming this land for three years he sold it and bought a half interest in a farm of one hundred and sixty acres known as the James Clark farm, across from the Clark school. This land he operated a year, and then sold his interest in it to his wife's uncle, O. J. Camp. Then he rented this farm for nine years, making many improvements and spending about five hundred and fifty dollars on it.

In 1907, after the settlement of the father's estate, Mr. Miller bought the interest of the two brothers in forty-five acres of land in the southern part of the old homestead across from the Christian church in Smithfield township, and in April, 1913, he bought one hundred and sixty acres from the O. J. Camp estate, comprising the farm he originally rented.

Mrs. Miller received forty acres from her father's estate in 1908, and subsequently she bought forty acres more from her sister, Mrs. Maude Duncan, this land being now rented to Gobert Gaetz. In all his affairs Mr. Miller has been characterized by sound judgment and untiring energy, so that he has succeeded in achieving a genuine success where many others would have gained but mediocre results. He gave his personal attention to every detail in his farm work, and maintained his place at the place of highest agricultural excellence. He raises all the crops common to his locality, and also gives some attention to the handling of live stock, in which he has been very successful.

On December 25, 1901, Forest Miller was married to Eva Camp, the daughter of Aaron and Amanda (Hasselman) Camp, and to them has been born one child, Lloyd Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller, out of the kindness of their hearts, have adopted a daughter who is now known as Ethel (Hope) Miller. Politically, Mr. Miller is a Democrat, progressive in his ideas and is numbered among the men of advanced thought in that locality. Fraternally, he is a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge of Ashley, and is held in the highest esteem by his fraternal brethren. He is one of those solid men of brain and substance so essential to the material growth and prosperity of a community and whose influence is willingly extended in behalf of every deserving enterprise that has for its object the advancement of the moral welfare of the locality. His success in life has been the legitimate result of consecutive effort, directed and controlled by good judgment and correct principles.

This map illustrates the townships as constituted at the time of the 1820 Federal Census. Broken lines indicate range and township lines where they do not coincide with the named township boundaries. Township numbers vary across the county, the upper tier being 23-21-17-18-18. Dates are those in which the townships were organized. Many of the townships were larger when first organized, and reduced in size as new townships were formed from the four original townships as constituted in 1812.

In microfilming the 1820 census schedules the original page numbers were crossed out, and a new number was placed on each two-page spread. Both numbers are given below, the original first, and the new number following the township. In order to indicate exactly the page an "a" has been placed after numbers to indicate that it is the second page of each spread, but it is NOT found in the microfilm.

In some cases a suggested family name or spelling is given in () when the name as given seems to be an error.

ABSTRACT OF RECORDED WAYNE COUNTY WILLS

1812 - 1851

(Previous to formation of Probate Court)

Wills are listed in the order in which they occur in Will Books 1, 2, and 3. An alphabetical index is found on pages 35 - 37 at the end of this abstract. It lists the page of this part on which the will abstract of the person is found.

Included in this abstract:

- Name
- Volume and page of the Will Book
- Date written
- Date probated
- Executor
- Witnesses
- Bondsmen and amount
- Appraisers
- Wife, if any and mentioned
- Legacies and relationships
- Places of residence and/or land owned.

Where a name of an executor, witness, or appraiser occurs a second time, it is omitted.

Relationships mentioned in this abstract are stated definitely in the will, unless a "?" follows it.

Letter and number gives the Case Number where the papers may be found in the Probate Court Records.

Procedure and Arrangement

Will books were used to copy the will as it was filed in the court after probation of the will. For a period of time only the will was recorded. Later the record of when it was probated and the testimony of the witnesses was included. In all cases the probating proceedings including testimony of the witnesses, assigning of bondsmen, and amount of bond, as well as the 3 appraisers named may be found in the Journal of The Common Pleas Court.

Packets may contain the will itself, the appraisal of assets, the record of sale, all receipts and expenditures by the executor, and the bond. Most are dated. In some cases one can find names of the children or heirs even when not named in the will.

SAINT MICHAEL'S CEMETERY

This cemetery is one mile east and one mile south of Marshallville, on County Road 95 (Coal Bank Road), Baughman Twp., Section 3.

Three congregations use this cemetery and share its upkeep-St. Michael's Evangelical Lutheran Church (across the road from the cemetery); the Reformed (now the St. Michael's United Church of Christ) in Marshallville; and the Mennonite Church. The Mennonite part of the cemetery i south of the driveway which is the farthest to the south, and these names are listed separately.

Esther Weggandt Powell's book "St. Michael's Evangelical Lutheran Church 1830-1930" gives a good history of th church, and lists some of the names on the grave stones in the cemetery. The book is in the Wayne County Public Library, Wooster, Ohio.

OHIO 1835 TAX DUPLICATE

GERALD M. PETTY, COMPILER

PETTY'S PRESS
COLUMBUS, OHIO

An index should not need any explanation, but this index requires a lengthy one.

It contains the name of every person listed in the Ohio 1835 tax duplicates, a three-letter code for the county and a three-letter code for the township. If a third set of three letters appears, that is for the village, incorporation, town, etc. The above is followed by a one or two character description of the information available in the original tax records and the page number. This index was prepared from the original ledgers.

The abbreviations for counties, townships, etc. are given in Table 1. This information is also reproduced on the inside of the front and back covers. Perhaps one third to one half of the tax duplicates did not have page numbers; therefore, no page numbers appear on the microfilm copies. For use with this index, I have numbered them.

INFORMATION in the ORIGINAL. The 1835 Original Tax Duplicates have recorded the following: Range, Township, Section; Number of Lot; Value of Land, houses, factories; State and Canal Tax; County and school tax; Township Tax; Total. Example: Pike Co, Seal Twp. was assessed 1 1/2 mills for State and Canal Tax; 5 mills for County and school tax; 1 mill for township tax; 7 1/2 mills total. Pike Co townships were all assessed the same tax with the exception of Beaver twp. paying NO township tax and Camp Creek twp. paying two mills township tax. Type of Tax Record code follows:

A. Range, township, section (at least one).
B. Lot or Virginia Military District of Ohio (hereafter VMDO) entry numbers.
C. A+B, also A with subdivision of sections. Usually this subdivision entry is NW 1/4, E 1/2, for example; occasionally it is a "fraction" or "part".
D. Location within the county is not given.
E. Error: usually no taxes are assessed. This includes land being paid for in installments to the Federal Government, that was not taxed until the final installment was paid. It also includes land that was to be sold for delinquent taxes. There may have been other reasons.
F. Lawyers, usually listed at the end of twp.
G. Doctors, usually listed at the end of twp.
H. Professional persons, not otherwise identified. Could be lawyers or doctors, too.
L. Livestock (horses, cattle), money loaned at interest, capital for manufacture or merchandise. (Lists that contain L entries are very fragmentary).
5. Original proprietors. In the VMDO, the entry number, and often the original acreage, are given.
7. Delinquent taxpayers, if they were in a separate list. Most delinquent taxpayers' names were scattered throughout the tax lists. Some had "D" at the extreme left, or elsewhere; other marks were used.
8. Names entered, for a wide variety of reasons, in any column except those reserved for names of taxpayers or original proprietors. Most of these names are in the right-hand column, under "comments", etc.
9. County auditors.
'. More than one parcel of land, or more than one line in the ledger (usually a partnership) is entered for one owner. In a few instances, all the parcels on one page were owned by one person or partnership.
". More than one parcel of land, but with parcels that belonged to other taxpayers listed between them. Some of these may have been father and son, or cousins. "means you should read every name on a pg.
+. After the units (page) column, a plus indicates that an original proprietor's name occurs also on later pages in that county. Large tracts of land owned by the original proprietors had been subdivided much earlier than 1835 into smaller parcels or lots. The information about the Large tracts of land owned by the original proprietors had been subdivided much earlier than 1835 into smaller parcels or lots. The information about the original proprietor usually does not change from one entry to another, unless he owned more than one original entry .The original proprietor column was often crowded; this led to the frequent use of initials, and to some difficulty in deciphering names.

A,B. In the hundreds column of the page numbers, indicate more than one page with that number. These letter-number combination do not appear in any original, therefore in no microfilm copy.

In microfilming the 1820 census schedules the original page numbers were crossed out, and a new number was placed on each two-page spread. Both numbers are given below, the original first, and the new number following the township. In order to indicate exactly the page an "a" has been placed after numbers to indicate that it is the second page of each spread, but it is NOT found in the microfilm.

In some cases a suggested family name or spelling is given in () when the name as given seems to be an error.

At the end of the list were the names of "young men." These seem to be similar to "single man" of other townships. Since most of them are duplicated in the main tax roll, they have been marked with an (*).

In addition to the list of "young men," there was a second list entitled: "Young Men, Miscellaneous Assessments." No tax was shown for these but the amount of land and/or stock was shown. All names start with W.

NORTHERN HEMPFIELD TOWNSHIP, 1786

At the head of the tax list is: "A Return of the—property of the Northern District of Hempfield Township taken by us February 18th 1786. Laurence Irwin, John Shields, James Moore, Assessors." The list had two columns with identical names in each, and the amount due for State and County taxes.

[1] Name crossed out.

The second column is headed: "Original Record Book (field)." The spellings of the names in the columns differ somewhat and spelling in the second column, when different, is shown in parenthesis. Copied in order on tax returns.

INDEX TO JOINERS

The following symbols are used in this index:

* = Indicates name is out-of-order. A second asterisk marks the spot where the word belongs.

SMITH = Underlining indicates that the word could not be clearly read.

1-56 = Volume and page where joiner is found.

Although the clerk, who originally transcribed these surveys into the books, made numerous mis-transcriptions in the spelling of names (especially in his L's and S's; eg Simon Drum is listed as Limon Drum), we have made no attempt to correct these errors in this index. Each name appears as it was found in the books.

he became proprietor of the hotel about a half mile from Jennerstown, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, where he remained for several years. In 1856 he went to California, where he was driver of a mail stage for a considerable period, and while in the west he also made his home in Salt Lake City for a time. In 1860 he returned to his old home in Pennsylvania, and the following year enlisted in the Union army, becoming a member of Company C, Fifty-fourth Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, with which he served for three years. He then re-enlisted and continued with the army until the close of the war, returning to his home with a creditable military record. He held membership in the Presbyterian church. He married Jane Richmier, and they had six children: Charles A., Abraham, William and John, all deceased; Joshua, who is living in Downingtown, Pennsylvania; and Margaret, wife of Jeremiah Heckman.

Charles A. Lowry, having obtained his education in the public schools, began learning the cabinet maker's trade when sixteen years of age, as an apprentice under Henry Hoffman, at Jenner's Crossroads, where he remained for four years. He then came to Ligonier, where he worked at his trade for Samuel Weiner for one year, on the expiration of which period he embarked in business for himself, forming a partnership with J. W. Ambrose, for the conduct of a furniture and undertaking business at Ligonier. They carried on this enterprise for five years, when Mr. Lowry withdrew and started an independent business, which he has since successfully conducted, and he is to-day one of the oldest and most prominent merchants of the borough. He is also interested in public affairs relating to the welfare and improvement of the locality. He is a member of the Presbyterian church, and is a charter member of Ligonier Lodge, No. 964, I. O. O. F., in which he has passed all the chairs. He is likewise a charter member of the Knights of Honor Lodge, No. 1244 in which he has filled all the offices, and he belongs to the J. O. A. M. at Ligonier. His political labors and ballot endorse Democratic principles, and he has held local office, serving as councilman for one term, as school director two terms, as judge of elections, assessor and in other positions. Mr. Lowry married Sarah Hicks, a daughter of William and Lydia Hicks, and granddaughter of Abram and Eve Hicks. They had eight children: Olive I., wife of Thomas Kuhn; Lydia M., wife of James Tinkom; Annie, wife of John Dennis; Edward W. and Mathew B. S., at home; and three who died in infancy.

SAMUEL S. DICE. The Dice family has for more than a century been represented in Westmoreland county. Ephraim Dice, the grandfather, was born in this county in 1808, and in early life learned the cabinet-making trade, which he followed throughout his business career in or near Mount Pleasant. He had four children: William; Elizabeth, wife of James Patterson; and Samuel and Alexander, both deceased. Ephraim Dice has outlived his children and is still quite active. He makes his home at Mount Pleasant.

William Dice, son of Ephraim Dice, was born in Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland county, about 1844, and for a number of years was engaged in the furniture business with his father in his native town. About 1873 or 1874 he removed to Ligonier, where he opened a furniture store, which he conducted successfully until his death, which occurred in 1893. In politics he was a stalwart Democrat, active in the local work of the party, and he served as school director, councilman and in other offices. He married Margaret Henry, a daughter of George and Mary Henry, and to them were born two children: Samuel S. and Edith O.

They had eight children: Clara L., wife of Thomas [illegible]; [illegible] M., wife of [illegible]; Annie, wife of John Dennis; Edward W., and Matthew E. S., at home; and three who died in infancy.

SAMUEL S. DICK. The Dick family has for more than a century been represented in Westmoreland county. Ephraim Dick, the grandfather, was born in this county in [illegible], and in early life learned the [illegible] trade, [illegible] he followed throughout his business career [illegible]. He had four children: William; Elizabeth, wife of James Patterson; and [illegible] and Alexander, both deceased. Ephraim Dick has retired [illegible] and is still quite active. He makes his home at Mount Pleasant.

William Dick, son of Ephraim Dick, was born in Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland county, about [illegible], and for a number of years was engaged in [illegible] business with his father in his native town. About [illegible] he [illegible] in Ligonier, where he opened a furniture store, which he conducted successfully until his death, which occurred in [illegible]. He married Margaret [illegible], daughter of George and Mary [illegible], and to them were born two children: Samuel S. and Emma C.

Samuel S. Dice, the only son, was born in Mount Pleasant, October 1, 1862, and removed to Ligonier with his father when about ten years of age. He acquired his education in the public schools and after putting aside his text-books assisted his father in the store until he was about twenty-three years of age. He then established a barber shop, which he has since conducted, and his large patronage now returns to him a good income. Like his father Mr. Dice gives his political allegiance to the Democratic party. He was elected chief burgess of Ligonier by an overwhelming majority, notwithstanding the fact that the borough is a strong Republican center. His election was certainly proof of his personal popularity and the confidence reposed in him by his fellow townsmen. He belongs to the Methodist Episcopal church of Ligonier, and is a member of Ligonier Lodge, No. 964, I. O. O. F. He wedded Sarah A. Brenizer, and they have one son, William Brenizer, born in July, 1895. Sarah A. (Brenizer) Dice was a daughter of Jacob and Sarah Brenizer, of Ligonier Valley. She was born March 17, 1862, educated in the Ligonier schools, and or several years was assistant to Squire Graham, then postmaster of Ligonier. She is a member of the Methodist church. Mr. Dice at this date (1906) is erecting a beautiful modern dwelling on Main street, Ligonier, which will be his home when finished.

JOHN FREEMAN MENOHER, the genial proprietor of the Hotel Menoher at Ligonier, belongs to one of the old and honored families of the Ligonier Valley. His grandfather, Charles Menoher, resided two miles east of the borough, where he followed farming throughout his entire life. He married a Miss Clifford, and they had nine children: John, Joseph, Samuel, Thomas, William, Jane, wife of McKinley McKelvey; Rebecca, wife of William McColly; Bell, wife of James McKelvy; and Melissa, wife of Michael Fry.

William Menoher, son of Charles Menoher, was born in Ligonier township in 1823, and was reared to farm life, always carrying on agricultural pursuits in the Ligonier valley until his demise. The old home property is now in possession of one of his descendants, Henry D. He was a member of the Ligonier Presbyterian church. He married Catherine Austraw, daughter of John Austraw, and they have eight children: Charles, John F., Lemon B., Watson A., Henry D. F., Harry A., Elsie D., wife of Moses B. Parson; Ada Maud, wife of George A. Freeman.

John F. Menoher, son of William Menoher, was born in Ligonier township, December 1, 1854, and after obtaining his education in the public schools devoted his energies to the work of the old home farm until thirty years of age. He then entered upon an independent business career as proprietor of what is now known as the National Hotel, at Ligonier, where he remained three years. He then purchased the property which he now occupies and established the Menoher Hotel, where he has built up a business that is a credit to the town as well as a good source of income to himself. He is one of the most popular hotel men in the valley. In connection with his hotel he conducts a livery stable. Mr. Menoher gives his political support to the Democratic party, and he has been elected to the office of councilman for three terms, although the borough has a strong normal Republican majority. He belongs to Odd Fellows Lodge, No. 964, at Ligonier. He married Ella R. Lawson, a daughter of James Lawson, a justice of the peace and an old resident of Ligonier borough. James Lawson, a son of Thomas and Esther (Moore) Lawson, was born in Somerset, Pennsylvania, December 18, 1814. He learned the trade of hatter. He was also a carpenter and cabinet-maker. James Lawson married Mary Roberts,

This number completes Volume 1. We wish to express our thanks to the various members of the Society who have helped to make our undertaking a success.

A meeting of the Society was held at Pennsburg, Penna., on Friday evening, Nov. 23. The officers of the Society were re-elected, viz:—President, Dr. E. E. S. Johnson; Vice President, Dr. W. A. Kline; Secretary, Rev. C. M. DeLong; Treasurer, F. F. Huber. Over three hundred persons are enrolled as members at present. There are many persons who would join if the matter were mentioned to them. We trust that we are not overestimating the value of our work when we ask the members to mention our society and its work to their friends.

There is a balance of some $57.00 in the treasury at this writing. This balance includes a very substantial gift from Dr. W. H. Reed, of Jeffersonville, for which we are most grateful.

Copies of all the published numbers can be obtained from the treasurer. Write to him for prices. All subscriptions should be sent direct to the treasurer.

All communications intended for publication should be sent to the editor.

If you change your address, notify the treasurer.

If you have in your possession old deeds, account books, papers, diaries, drafts, etc., which pertain to the Perkiomen Region, we would be glad to have you deposit them for safe keeping in the vault of the Historical Library at Pennsburg.

A School History of Montgomery County will be published in the coming year, under the auspices of the Directors' Association. The history is being prepared by H. W. Kriebel, of Pennsburg.

Nicolaus Korndoerffer.

In the year 1779 on the 21st day of May, Michael Harlacher, yoeman, and wife Barbara, conveyed to Andreas Reed, saddler, Andreas Öhl, innkeeper, Matthias Scheifley, innkeeper, and Jacob Long, yoeman, trustees, a tract of land containing 11 acres and 130 perches in Marlborough township. The consideration was 215 pounds. The land was to be held "In trust nevertheless, and to erect a school thereon for the use of the Calvinists and Lutherans, jointly and in common now settled and from time to be settled in the said township of Marlborough and for no other purpose whatsoever." (Deed Book No. 116, page 922. Recorded May 16, 1859 at Norristown, Penna.) This school has been located by H. W. Kriebel, about a half mile north of Sorrel Horse Inn on the road from Green Lane to Trumbarersville, and on land originally taken up by Adam Eichely. (Pat. 1760, May 12, A. 19,532).

Who the first school teacher was we do not know. One of the earliest was Johann Nicolaus Korndoerffer. His account book is in the possession of F. F. Huber, of Pennsburg, who is a descendant of the executor of Korndoerffer's will. According to Rupp's Thirty Thousand Names, Joh. Nicolas Korndoeriffer came over on the ship Paliena and Margaret and landed Oct. 25, 1748.

Korndoerffer was a wanderer. In the year 1767 we find him in Worcester, at Wentz's Reformed Church. He collected funds for this church. Probably he taught school in the old school house adjacent to the church. Later we find him teaching school at Boehm's Church at Blue Bell (Bean's History of Montgomery County, Article, Whitpain).

He died in Douglass township. From his will (Will Book, No. 2, Page 185) made Sept. 10, 1800, and proved Dec. 22, 1800, we may conclude that he died in the fall of 1800. He was survived by his wife Margaret, and three children, Philip, Elizabeth, married to a Mueller, and Veronica, married to a Welker. His executor was Michael Hoover.

In his will he desires his god son to have two pounds and 10 shillings. After his wife's death his estate was to be divided among his children. The witnesses were Christian Wanamacher and John Kurtz.

Korndoerffer appears as a witness to Feronica Riet's will dated Dec. 24, 1790. She was the widow of Philip Riet of Marlborough township. (The editor is indebted to Dr. W. Reed, of Jeffersonville, for many of the above facts).

(Washington Irving in his description of Ichabod Crane mentions the fact that Ichabod was averse to hard work. And that when he helped the farmers in their work he always performed the lighter tasks. In Korndoerffer's book we find that he did whatever his hands found to do. Adam Flek was a prominent resident of Whitpain).

Persons Naturalized in Montgomery County, June-October, 1765.

Charles R. Barker

In the July number of "The Perkiomen Region" we gave a list of persons naturalized within the limits of what is now Montgomery county, in 1750-56 and 1760-62, together with dates of naturalization and places of residence. This data, lacking the places of residence, had been printed in Volume II, Second Series, Pennsylvania Archives.

Below, we give a list of 300 persons naturalized within the same territorial limits, in June-October, 1765 (the bulk of them, in July and August). These names have been compiled from a group of about 2750 which have never appeared in the published Archives. They are found, however, in the copy of the Papers of the Board of Trade, of London, belonging to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania; and the same lists have been printed in Volume 24 of the Publications of the Huguenot Society of London.

As before, an asterisk is used to denote the affirmants. Odd abbreviations and spellings have been preserved. As no dates were given in the case of the affirmants, and as all the naturalizations took place in 1765, we have omitted dates altogether from the following list. and in the third column we give, instead, the name of the county. While this, of course, should always be Philadelphia, it will be seen that, in a number of instances, the authorities have erred in locating townships in the wrong county.

PHILADELPHIA:
EVERTS & PECK.
1884.

32 7375 [illegible]

1800 shows in this township a remarkably steady increase in its population.

According to Holme's map of original surveys, the first land-holders in Upper Dublin, commencing at the Abington line, between the Susquehanna Street road and Horsham, were Samuel Clarrige, Pierce & Co., Richard Hill and Richards & Aubrey; south of that road to the Gwynedd line, in the same order, William Salaway, Mathew Perrin, Henry Patrick, Mathias Seely, John Southworth, Richard Coates, Andrew Soule, Thomas Marle and William and George Harmer. If the aforesaid is correct, it is very probable, judging by the list of 1734, that not one (unless the Harmers be excepted) of those mentioned was a settler, being merely dealers in land, which they took up with a view to speculation. It was, in consequence, settled slowly, and we cannot find that it was recognized as a township much earlier than 1719. Records exist establishing the fact that in 1705 it was regarded as a portion of Abington; hence we may justly conclude that its territory was set off from that township, but at what exact date cannot now well be ascertained.

To touch on the early settlement of Upper Dublin, it is, perhaps, best to refer first to the list of resident land-holders and tenants in the township in 1734, and from that date base all anterior claims. According to that authority, there were at the time mentioned thirty-five, as follows: Derick Tyson, 100 acres; Richard Witton, 200; Joseph Charlesworth, 200; Joseph Britain, 100; Ephraim Heaton, 100; Ellis Lewis, 200; Trump's estate, 200; Samuel Spencer, 100; Daniel Roberts, 200; William Atkinson, 50; Rees David, 100; Edward Burk, 200; Edward Burk, Jr., 20; Hugh Burk, 100; Thomas Parker, 90; Peter Cleaver, 100; William Melcher, 100; John Harmer, 100; Dennis Cunard, 100; Joseph Tucker, 200; Joseph Nash, 100; William Lukens, 200; John McCathery, 100; Thomas Fitzwater, 200; John Conard, 200; John Hamilton, 50; Thomas Fitzwater, Richard Reagan, Thomas Davis, John Trout, Charles Hubbs, Henry Rinkard, Ellis Lewis, John Loanan and Robert Doughty.

Edward Burk's purchase was made from Nicholas Scull and others November 21, 1698, and extended from the Susquehanna Street road to the Whitemarsh line, and included a part of the present village of Ambler. It must have been soon after this date that he settled upon his tract, and he was probably one of the earliest settlers in the township. Edward Burk, Jr., and Hugh Burk were his sons. John Burk was a supervisor of roads from 1774 to 1777, and from this last date Edward Burk continuously to 1786. He was also a collector of taxes in the Revolution. In 1776 we find assessed in this township Edward Burk, "aged," fifty acres; Edward Burk, Jr., seventy-eight acres; John Burk, sixty acres; John Burk, single. Charles Burk, now in his eightieth year, resides on the old homestead, which has never been out of the family. His father and grandfather bore the name of Edward Burk. The latter was born on this place in 1761, and died in 1832. He is the last survivor of eight children and the only one bearing the name now in the township. The family have been among the earliest members of the St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, of which he has been warden since 1833. The records of this church go back no further than 1742, when Hugh Burk was warden and John Burk a vestryman.

It is known that Thomas Fitzwater owned real estate and carried on lime-burning at the present village of Fitzwatertown before June, 1705, when he had sent in a petition for a road from his kilns to Pennypack Mills; but it was not attended to until 1725. His father, Thomas Fitzwater,, with sons, Thomas and George, came from Middlesex, England, and arrived in the ship "Welcome," with William Penn, in November, 1682. His wife, Mary, and children, Josiah and Mary, died on the passage. He originally settled in Bucks County, which he represented in the Assembly in 1683. He afterwards removed to Philadelphia, and was again in the Assembly in 1690. He was a preacher among Friends, and died October 6, 1699. In the assessment of Upper Dublin in 1776, John Fitzwater is rated for three hundred acres of land and a grist-mill. Mathew and John Fitzwater, probably sons, are also mentioned thereon. John Fitzwater, a descendant of this family and an extensive lime-burner and real estate owner, died at Fitzwatertown, May 13, 1857, in his eighty-fourth year, and was buried in the family burying-ground near by. He was owner of a portion of the Emlin estate, on which is the large mansion used by Washington as his headquarters, while the army lay in the vicinity of Whitemarsh. Fitzwater as a surname has now become extinct in Upper Dublin.

Dennis (or Tunis) Kunders (or Conard) came from Germany and settled at Germantown before 1700, and with his sons—Conrad, Mathias and John—was naturalized September 29, 1707, to hold and enjoy lands. Peter Cleaver also settled in Germantown, and in 1695 was married, in Abington Meeting, to Catharine Shoemaker, and naturalized in 1707. We find here in 1776, Peter Cleaver owning one hundred and fifty acres; John Cleaver, one hundred; and Isaac Cleaver, one hundred acres. Descendants still possess lands here. The Houpt family is also of German origin, and in Montgomery County has produced several successful business men. Samuel Houpt, in 1776, is rated here as possessing a farm of ninety-five acres. His descendants have become numerous. Respecting the Lukens family, in 1776, Ryner Lukens is rated for 100 acres; Joseph Lukens, 100 acres; Isaac Tyson, 150 acres; Mathew Tyson, 50; and Jonathan Tyson, 123 acres and a grist-mill. Samuel Spencer, who is mentioned in 1734, was still living in 1776 and represented as "aged," and owing 150 acres; James Spencer, 150; and John Spencer, the same number of acres. They resided in the eastern part of the township and were members of Horsham Meeting.

Joseph Nash, in the list of 1734, may possibly be the same on whom a raid was made by the British while they held possession of Philadelphia, for which he was allowed two hundred and twenty pounds damages thus sustained.

The road from North Wales or Gwynedd to Germantown and Philadelphia, but now better known as the Bethlehem road or turnpike, which was laid out in 1704, but not opened until 1714, passes two miles across the west corner of the township. What is now called the Welsh road was opened from Gwynedd in 1712, forming the boundary line of Horsham, and extends to the present Huntingdon Valley, on the Pennypack. Respecting this road, there was a dispute, in 1731, between the two townships about keeping it in repair. Although Thomas Fitzwater had applied to the court for the grant of a road from his limekilns to the Pennypack Mills, by way of Abington Meeting-house, in 1705, it was not laid out and opened until 1725. This is the road now leading from Fitzwatertown through Weldon and Jenkintown. The Limekiln road was in use and bore this name before 1716. John Burk, in June, 1744, sent a petition to the Court of Quarter Sessions, stating that he had lately erected a grist-mill in Upper Dublin, and that he was in want of a road of about half a mile in length from the same to the Gwynedd road, passing on his line, with lands of Andrew Bradford, deceased. It was accordingly ordered to be laid out. This is now the present John Heist's mill, above Gilkison's Corner.

Thomas Fitzwater was appointed collector of taxes for Upper Dublin in 1719; the amount was £10 10*s.* 8*d.*, equivalent to $28.80 of our present currency. Thomas Siddon was collector in 1722 and John Trump in 1723. Hans Caspar Schlater was supervisor of highways in 1765; James Spencer, to 1767; Michael Trump, to 1770; George Reagan, 1771; Samuel Murray and Christian Herner, 1772; John Spencer and John Burk, 1774; John Burk and Michael McCrory, until 1777; John Cleaver and Joseph Butler, 1786; Isaac Cleaver and George Dresher, 1788; Amos Lewis and George Dresher, 1792; Christopher Dresher and Jonathan Scout, 1810. Samuel Houpt was constable in 1767, James Spencer assessor in 1776, and Edward Burk collector.

At the present Gilkison's Corner, on the Bethlehem turnpike, Andrew Gilkison kept an inn from 1779 to 1786, and most probably later; hence the name of the place. This was on the store property now owned by David Dunnet. About a quarter of a mile above this place was a tavern formerly kept by Benjamin Daves. Paul Bower kept an inn in 1774, and Susanna Wright in 1779, which we are at present unable to locate, but very probably in this vicinity. In 1776, John Fitzwater, Jonathan Tyson, Joseph Detwiler and Lewis Rynear owned grist-mills, and Arthur Broades a fulling-mill, at the present village of Ambler.

Upper Dublin contains at present within its limits five houses of worship, namely: Puff's Lutheran, Friends', Dunkard, Methodist Episcopal at Jarrettown and Baptist at Ambler. There are, besides, five private graveyards, belonging to the Fitzwater, Dresher, Whitcomb and Bergenstock families, and one on the McCormick property.

The large stone building used by Washington as his headquarters while the army lay in this vicinity is still standing in Upper Dublin, on the south side of Camp Hill, but a few yards from the Springfield line, and about half a mile from Whitemarsh. In the beginning of this century it was owned by Caleb Emlin, to which was then attached two hundred and thirty-six acres; after his decease, in 1810, it was sold in several tracts. The mansion and about one hundred and twenty acres were purchased by Mr. Stuckert, next by Mr. Frey in 1833, by John Fitzwater, and after his decease, in the fall of 1857, was purchased by the present owner, Charles T. Aimen, who has taken due care in its preservation. For its day it was certainly a great affair, and even now not many mansions are built larger. It is of stone, seventy-five by thirty-five feet, two full stories in height, and to it was formerly attached a wing on its western end, containing the kitchen. In making some repairs, over thirty years ago, it was deprived of its hip-roof, but otherwise has been very little changed. The hall is fifteen feet wide. The steps at the main front door are of fine soapstone, neatly wrought, and the general appearance of the building denotes it to have been at the date of its erection a superior structure. Its walls are substantial, and with care could be made to last yet for a long time. While Washington was here the army was encamped on the hill to the north of the mansion, which was certainly a strong position. It is even yet principally covered with woods. The encampment lasted from October 20 to December 11, 1777, when they proceeded on their march to Valley Forge. On the night of December 5th, General Howe came hither from Philadelphia, by way of Chestnut Hill, with a view of surprising the camp; but on seeing the position and unable to draw out the Americans, returned, by way of Abington and Jenkintown, to the city, the result proving the expedition a failure.

The Friends' Meeting-house is situated about half a mile northwest of Jarrettown, and was built in 1814 on a lot of ground presented for the purpose by Phebe Shoemaker. It is a one-story stone building, thirty-six by forty feet in dimensions. From its elevated position a fine prospect is afforded, towards the south of Edge Hill, for some distance, and the intervening country. The ground attached covers about two acres, on which are also erected several sheds for the accommodation of horses. About twenty yards from the front-door is a horse-block, of stone, consisting of five steps to the top, four and a half feet from the ground and three and a half feet wide, now so rare as to become an object of interest to the antiquary. The graveyard covers nearly an acre, and seldom among Friends is one seen having so many white marble tombstones, though rarely over a foot high and with brief inscriptions. The surnames found are Lukens, Teas, Rutter, Beans, Shoemaker, Lightfoot, Hawhurst, Hughs, Rich, Danenhower, Thomas, Garrigues, Cadwallader, Spencer, Fitzwater, Shaw, Wilson, Reiff, Willard, Conard, Robinson, Kenderdine, Matlack, Dunnet, Sill, Tyson, Atkinson and Potts. The families originally composing the meeting were those of David Lukens, George Shoemaker, Naylor Webster, Joseph Kenderdine, Samuel Conard, Cornelius Conard, Thomas Hallowell, Jacob Kirk, Levi Jarrett, Charles Thomas, Jesse Lukens, Phebe Shoemaker, Daniel Shoemaker, Thomas Shoemaker, Elizabeth Potts, George Dunnet, Jacob Reiff, Isaac Thomas, Atkinson Hughs, Michael Trump and Jonah Potts, now all deceased. A First-day school was started here in 1875, and has been the means of increasing the general attendance of the meeting.

The German Baptist, or Dunkard, meeting-house is nearly a mile northeast of Ambler, on the Plymouth and Upper Dublin turnpike. It is a one-story stone building, twenty-eight by thirty-six feet in dimensions, and was built in 1840. The ground belonging to it is nearly an acre, of which the graveyard occupies about two-thirds. The tombstones contain the names of Reiff, Moore, Smith, Livezey, Gamble, Slingluff, McCool, Jones, Sperry, Fry, Wentz, Souders, Detra, Lear, Ford, Walton, Bisson, Henry, Kneezel, Buchanan, Lightcap, Haycock, Wolfe, Collum, Fulmer and Faringer. Before the erection of the meeting-house the congregation worshiped in a school-house in the vicinity. For some time it was a branch of the Germantown Meeting, and was served by their ministers. Elder John Price was its first stated pastor. Caleb H. Price was elected and preached here until he went to the West. John Slingluff and others next supplied the pulpit for several years, or until about 1881, when Israel Poulson, from New Jersey, settled within its bounds and the charge was given him. Worship is held here every Sunday, the services being conducted in English.

The flourishing village of Ambler is situated in the western corner of the township, on the east side of the Wissahickon Creek, and near to the Gwynedd and Whitpain line. Its origin and prosperity have been chiefly owing to the North Pennsylvania Railroad, and only dating since its construction in 1856. The census of 1880 gives it a population of two hundred and fifty-one inhabitants, and it promises, from its present prosperity, ere long to add to the present number of boroughs in the county. In 1883 it contained one hotel, one hardware, one drug and two general stores, one lumber and two coal-yards, a grist-mill and about seventy houses. The Baptist Church here is a one-story stone building, of which the Rev. Mr. Humphreys is pastor. Upper Dublin post office was removed here from Gilkison's Corner several years ago, and has only been recently changed to Ambler. In December, 1880, this village, with a small portion of Whitemarsh, Gwynedd and Whitpain adjoining, was formed into an independent school district, of which about one-half of the territory was included from Upper Dublin. The public school building here is of stone, two stories in height, of which Lizzie Magee is teacher. For the school year ending June 1, 1882, it was open eight and a half months with an average attendance of forty-six pupils. There is here also a beneficial society, incorporated May, 1883,—Camp No. 215, of the Patriotic Sons of America,—and several manufacturing establishments. A newspaper was published for about six months, by Dr. Rose, called the Ambler Times, which was succeeded, in December, 1882, by The Ambler Gazette, which continues to flourish. In the south part of the village, beside the railroad, is the extensive establishment of Keasbey & Mattison, manufacturing chemists, who employ about sixty hands, chiefly in the preparation of carbonate of magnesia and quinine. The business was commenced here in 1881, and they use several steam-engines, the largest of eighty horse-power. Their office in Philadelphia is at 332 North Front Street. The First National Bank of Ambler was organized in May, 1884, with a capital of fifty-five thousand dollars; Benjamin P. Wertsner, president, and J. J. Houghton, cashier. A bank building was commenced in 1884, and is now nearly completed. To the east of the village is Ambler Park, at which, for several years, an agricultural exhibition has been held. The turnpike through this place was made in 1855, on what has been long known as the Butler road, and extends from the Three Tons to the borough of Conshohocken. The grist-mill owned in 1776 by Joseph Detwiler is now in possession of Edward Plumly, on the west side of the Wissahickon. Arthur Broades had a fulling-mill here, on Rose Valley Run, in 1776, since owned by the Ambler family, but no longer in operation. The track of the North Pennsylvania Railroad here was stated by the engineer to be one hundred and ninety feet above tide-water level. Should this in the future become a large town, it will possess, from its situation, excellent facilities for a water supply, so often found wanting at growing places.

Fitzwatertown is situated in the southern part of the township, on the Limekiln turnpike, in the midst of the fertile valley of Sandy Run, abounding in limestone and iron-ore. This is an old settlement, where Thomas Fitzpatrick followed lime-burning before the summer of 1705 and had a grist-mill erected at an early period. It contains a store, hotel, wheelwright and blacksmith-shop, grist-mill and about twelve houses. The post-office was established here before 1858. The value of lime produced in Upper Dublin for 1840 was stated to be twenty thousand two hundred and seventy-five dollars, which was all produced in this vicinity, but the business has since been greatly increased through railroad facilities. Edge Hill Station, of the North Pennsylvania Railroad, is only a mile distant; yet, with all its surpassing ad-meeting-house, though rarely now a Sabbath and week-day meetings. The surnames found are Lukens, Tyson, Rutter, Roberts, Shoemaker, Lightfoot, Conard, Hagele, Burr, Shoemaker, Thomas, Cadwalader, Spencer, Phipps, Shoe, Wilson, Willett, Conrad, Robeson, Knight, [illegible], Jenkins and Evans. The families originally composing the meeting were those of David Lukens, George Shoemaker, Charles Wolmer, Joseph Kenderdine, Samuel Conard, Cleggett, Thomas Tidswell, Jacob Kirk, Levi Jarrett, Charles Thomas, Lewis Jackson, [illegible], David Shoemaker, Charles Shoemaker, Elizabeth Erwin, George Thomas, Jacob Roth, Isaac Thomas, Abraham Hagey, Michael Trump and Jacob Faust, now all deceased. A First-day school was started here in 1870 and has been the means of increasing the general attendance of the meeting.

The German Baptist, or Dunkard, meeting-house is nearly a mile northeast of Ambler, on the Plymouth and Upper Dublin township. It is a one-story stone building, twenty-eight by thirty-six feet in dimensions, and was built in 1840. The ground belonging to it is nearly an acre, of which the graveyard occupies about two-thirds. The tombstones contain the names of Hoot, Rieser, Faust, Levering, Custer, Wampole, Ritter, Quick, Jones, Spencer, Fry, Wentz, Bowden, Davis, Lewis, Rex, Walton, Beck, Haley, Kneedler, Rittenhouse, Lightfoot, Harbeck, Wolf, Conrad, Puttney and Kirshner. Before the erection of the meeting-house the congregation assembled in a school-house in the vicinity. For some time it was a branch of the Germantown Meeting, and was served by their ministers. Elder John Price was its first stated pastor. Caleb H. Price was elected and preached here until he went to the West. John Shingler and others have supplied the pulpit for several years, or until about 1881, when Israel Poulson, from New Jersey, settled within its bounds and the charge was given him. Worship is held here every Sunday, the services being conducted in English.

The flourishing village of Ambler is situated in the western corner of the township, on the east side of the Wissahickon Creek, and near to the Gwynedd and Whitpain line. Its origin and prosperity have been chiefly owing to the North Pennsylvania Railroad, and only dating since its construction in 1855. The census of 1880 gives it a population of two hundred and fifty-one inhabitants, and it promises, from its increased prosperity, ere long, to add to the present number of boroughs in the county. In 1883 it contained one hotel, one hardware, tin store and two general stores, two lumber and coal-yards, a grist-mill and about seventy houses. The Baptist Church here is a two-story stone building, of which the Rev. Mr. Hume is pastor. Upper Dublin post-office was removed here from [illegible] Corner several years ago, and has only been recently changed to Ambler. In December, 1890, this village, with a small portion of Whitemarsh, Gwynedd and Whitpain adjoining, was formed into an independent school district, of which about one-half of the territory was included from Upper Dublin. The public school building here is of stone, two stories in height, of which [illegible] Hagen is teacher. For the school year ending June 1, 1893, it was open eight and a half months with an average attendance of forty-one pupils. There is here also a beneficial society, incorporated May, 1889,—Camp No. 718, of the Patriotic Sons of America,—and several manufacturing establishments. A newspaper was published for about six months by Dr. Kuhn, called the Ambler Times, which was succeeded, in December, 1893, by The Ambler Gazette, which continues publication. In the south part of the village, beside the railroad, is the extensive establishment of Keasbey & Mattison, manufacturing chemists, who employ about [illegible] hands, chiefly in the preparation of carbonate of magnesia and quinine. A bank building was commenced in 1888, and is now nearly completed. To the east of the village is Ambler Park, at which, for several years, an agricultural exhibition has been held. The turnpike through this place was made in 1858, on what has been long known as the Butler road, and extends from the Three Tuns to the borough of [illegible]. DAYS FAMILY

Possibly the name Days was spelled Dace in Germany. However in pronunciation with a heavy German accent, it sounded like Days and was so recorded. The name Days is definitely not a German name, but the name Dace could very well be. The family may have come from Wurttemberg.

John enrolled on the 25th day of Aug 1862 at Wadsworth, OH in the 42 Regiment of Ohio Volunteers to serve 3 years or during the war, and sworn into service as a Pvt. on the 6th day of Sep 1862 at Columbus, OH. Name not taken up on rolls of regiment to Feb 22, 1863.

Certificate of Disability reports him disabled at Cincinnati, OH 22 Feb 1863. There is no evidence this man joined his Co. (H2) or regiment for duty. The records of this office do not furnish any evidence of injury other than appears on certificate of Disability duplicate of which sent to Pension Office. He was 5 feel, 10 inches, dark complexion, grey eyes and black hair.

Injury occurred in Cincinnati while in the performance of his duty in arresting a drunken soldier by stepping on a melon rind, slipped and fell, injuring his spine and left leg producing partial paralysis. 'At Cincinnati while on duty, I slipped and strained the cords between my legs which finally caused one of my legs to become paralyzed. Treated by Dr. Cook at Camp Dennison, OH.'

"I enlisted on the 25th day of Aug 1862 at Medina, OH, and returned disabled in the early spring of 1863. Having had medicine more or less, I undertook to doctor myself and did not employ a doctor. My left leg was paralyzed and I had piles, both contracted in my line of duty and under orders, I made and need liniment for my leg and made and used a salve for the piles finding by comparison I obtained as much relief from such treatment as people generally do. But have never been able to free myself from the afflictions and have never been able to do a hard days labor without serious results."

When he slipped and straddling his legs apart, he also had protruding of the rectum and piles. He was sent after another soldier to arrest and bring him to his quarters.

John applied for a pension on 22 Jan 1879. He was 48 years of age and living in Wadsworth, OH. He was discharged 22 Feb 1863. He applied for an increase in his pension, but cancelled the application. John died 29 Oct 1905. Catharine was left without any means of support after John's pension was terminated. She applied for a pension on 1 Nov 1905 at age 67 years. She stated that John left no will, no life insurance and that her total assets including property owned by her husband was $900, rental value about $5 per month and since he died, she has had no income per month or year and that no person was legally bound to provide for her support since that date. She received a pension of $12 per month and was last paid 4 Jun 1908. She died 5 Jul 1908.

Even though John was not able to do hard physical work, he was a mover of buildings. He was in this business with his sons, William and Lincoln who continued on after John's death.

Dear Carolyn, Sharon Dodridge gave me your email address as I am also working on the Days family history. I have only have some data the John Days branch of the family. However I understand your are a descendant of Catherine and John Pollard. I would appreciate it very much if you would share your data with me. I in turn will be more than willing to share what data I have on the John Days branch.
Thank you, Evelyn Kubach

From June through August 1958, CHARR participated in local operations at San Diego.

On 11 September 1958, CHARR departed San Diego to participate in fleet exercises with Canadian ships off the west coast of the United States.

CHARR operated locally from October through November 1958, completing the year as a holiday and leave period.

From January to May 1959, CHARR participated in local operations off the coast of Southern California.

On 6 May 1959, CHARR departed for duty with the SEVENTH FLEET in the Western Pacific. CHARR returned to San Diego on 28 October 1959.

CHARR operated locally in November and completed the year in a holiday and leave period.

From January to July 1960, CHARR participated in local operations in the San Diego area.

On 11 July 1960, CHARR departed San Diego for Olympia, Washington, for the Capitol Lake Fair Celebration during the weekend of 15 to 18 July. Departing Olympia on 18 July, CHARR proceeded to San Francisco Bay Naval Shipyard where she underwent a scheduled overhaul from 22 July to 5 December 1960.

CHARR departed San Francisco on 12 December and arrived in San Diego on 14 December where she completed the year in a holiday and leave status.

After local refresher training, CHARR departed San Diego on 24 February 1961 for duty with the SEVENTH Fleet in the Western Pacific.

During the deployment, CHARR visited Yokosuka, Nagasaki (participating in that city's port festival), Kobe and Komatsu Shima, Japan, as well ad Chinhae, Korea, Okinawa, Subic Bay and Manila, Philippines, and finally Hong Kong, BCC. CHARR returned to San Diego via Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, on August 1961 commencing a leave and upkeep period on arrival.

In September, CHARR commenced local operations. On 26 September while at deep submergence, a circulating water connection to the main motors gave away flooding the Motor Room. After surfacing and stopping the flooding, CHARR was towed to San Diego and thence to San Francisco Naval Shipyard for repairs. Upon completion of repairs in 9 November 1961, CHARR returned to San Diego and operated locally until mid-December when the Holiday Period commenced.

CHARR operated in the Puget Sound area between January and March 1962 returning to San Diego on 17 March.

Following a brief upkeep period, the ship departed San Diego for Seattle, Washington and a visit to the World Fair. Upon returning to San Diego on 17 May, CHARR conducted local operations until departing on 3 November for a scheduled deployment to the Western Pacific.

During this deployment, CHARR visited the Japanese cities of Yokosuka, Nagoua and Kobe as well as Naha, Okinawa; Subic Bay, Philippines and Hong Kong, BCC. CHARR returned to San Diego, via Pearl Harbor on 10 May 1963.

DAYS is one of the surnames I am researching. Adam DAYS, b. ca 1780, d. before January 11, 1866. In the 1860 Indiana census, he lived in the household of Albert S. MARTIN, in Smithfield Twp., DeKalb Co. His age was listed as 80 and his birthplace as Pennsylvania.

His will lists the following children: Mary CAMPBELL, Catharine POLLARD, Benjamin DAYS, Clark DAYS, and Julia Ann LOCKAMYER. His wife, Sarah, died in Baughman Twp., Wayne Co., Ohio. Her will mentions another daughter, Lucinda.

I have not been able to find a death record or a burial site for Adam DAYS, or for his daughter Catharine DAYS POLLARD, or for her husband, John POLLARD, although I believe all of them died in DeKalb County. Is anyone else researching this family?

took him; and then took two others who went to them with the intention to have those unhappy prisoners freed: and all these, when thus taken, they hurried down in the same manner to Annapolis and committed them as they had the others before. They have also since taken Joshua Minshal, a frequent sufferer in your gaols, for no other reason formerly than acknowledging the jurisdiction he lives under, and now for none that we can learn besides their own will and pleasure. Nor do we find anything is or can be alleged against those Dutchmen or Germans, more than that being from their own observation convinced (for they were never that we can discover, solicited or persuaded to it by any of this Government) that the place they lived in could not be in Maryland but in Pennsylvania, and therefore, they thought themselves obliged in conscience to acknowledge their rightful proprietors and accordingly let you know this, a proceeding that, on their application to some of our Magistrates of Lancaster, they were advised to as the most candid and in genuous means they could use on their return to us, which they had of themselves proposed and were determined in before."

This is simply a summing up of what our German-Swiss ancestors had to endure along the Susquehanna River in 1737 and before. And it is set forth as a mirror, which our people of the present day can see reflected, some of the conditions of the so-called "good old times." This took place in both Manor and W. Hempfield townships and also along the west side of the river.

This extract was found in Vol. 4, Col. Rec., p. 160.

1738—Ship Records For This Year.

During this year we find 16 ship loads of these German Swiss people. Among the common Lancaster County names we find the following:

3 Beyers—4 Bowmans—2 Benders—2 Burns — 2 Funks — 3 Fullmers — 2 Fritzs — 2 Hellars — 8 Hoffmans — 4 Halls—2 Hesses—4 Jacobs—2 Klines—3 Lites—3 Longs—18 Millers—9 Myers—3 Nagles—2 Palmers—3 Reeses—11 Smiths—13 Snyders—2 Shoemakers—3 Sharps—2 Shaeffers—2 Thomases—8 Wagners—2 Walters—2 Wolfs—3 Zieglers and 3 Webers.

We also find, one each of the following:

Arnold, Abel, Burkhart, Brock, Bernhart, Bricker, Beck, Daniel, Diehl, Engle, Fisher, Funk, Fehl, Gable, Goodman, Huppart, Hartman, Hoover, Hellar, Kinzer, Haller, Kauffman, Leanord, Mitchell, Mosser, Moore, Peters, Roth, Rhode, Stout, Ruth, Shenk, Shoop, Shultz, Starr, Slegel, Strauss, Stein, Shearer, Swartz, Tshudy, Zimmerman, Weaver, Wenger, Wise, Walker, Wanamaker and others.

These German and Swiss people came in the Ship "Bringantine Catherine" Jacob Philips Master—"Winter Galley" Edward Paynter Master—"Glascow" Walter Sterling Master—"Snow Sisters" James Marshall Master—"Robert and Alice of Dublin" Walter Goodman Master — "Queen Elizabeth" Alexander Hope Master—"Thistle" John Wilson, Master — "Nancy" William Wallace, Master — "Friendship" Henry Buch, Master—"Snow Fox" Charles Ware, Master—"Davy" William Patton, Master—"St. Andrew" John Stedmans, Master—"Bilander Thistle" George Houston, Master--"Elizabeth" George Hodgson, Master — "Charming Nancy" Chas. Stedman ,Master and "Snow Enterprise," Lynell Wood, Master.

1738—Unsanitary Accommodations in Our Ancestors' Ships.

From time to time the ancient records make reference to the sick and deceased conditions of the poorer immigrants and of the necessity for hospitals and lazarettos. In Vol. 4, Col. Rec., page 306, necessity for quarantine is again brought up.

It is there stated, that Dr. Thomas Graeme, who was appointed the official visitor on all ships arriving in Philadelphia made a report concerning four ships that had just come from Rotterdam and Amsterdam. It was particularly pointed out, that the passengers on the ship Nancy and Friendship should not land, as such landing might prove dangerous to the health of the inhabitants of the province. And, it was therefore ordered, that the Masters of these ships should be taken into custody for contempt in not obeying the Governor's order, which required, that all ships must remain one mile away from the City, until they give security not to land any of the passengers, baggage or goods until the passengers have been examined and until the ships have a license to do so.

It seems that Philadelphia was afraid of small pox and other contagious diseases.

On turning to the records of those who arrived in the Nancy and Friendship, we find persons bearing our Lancaster County names, such as Hoffman, Myer, Beck, Reese, Rhode, Young, Hoover, Miller, Shoop, Smith and many others.

1738—The Progress of Our County Largely Due to the German-Swiss.

Turning again to Col. Rec., Vol. 4, page 315, we find, that at this same time, the Governor made an address to the Assembly, in which he gave his views upon the subject of the German Swiss people and their condition in this county up until that time.

Among other things he says: "This Province has been for some time the asylum of the distressed Protestants of the Palatinate, and other parts of Germany, and I believe it may with truth be said that the present flourishing condition of it is in a great measure owing to the industry of those people; and should any discouragement divert them from coming hither, it may well be apprehended that the value of your lands will fall, and your advances to wealth be much slower; for it is not altogether the goodness of the soil, but the number and industry of the people that make a flourishing country. The condition indeed of such as arrived here lately has given a very just alarm; but had you been provided with a Pest House or Hospital in a proper situation the evils which have been apprehended might under God have been entirely prevented. The law to prevent sickly vessels from coming into this Government has been strictly put in execution by me. A physician has been appointed to visit those vessels and the Masters obliged to land such of the passengers as were sick at a distance from the City, and to convey them, at their own expense, to houses in the Country convenient for their reception. More could not have been done without inhumanly exposing great numbers to perish on board the ships that brought them."

1738—Another Lot of German Swiss Ancestors Naturalized.

During this session of the Legislature the following persons were naturalized, among those, we recognize many names of our Lancaster County people of the present day, Michael Albert, William Albert, Leanord Bender, George Miller, John Bushong, Nicholas Candle, John Hagey, Charles Kellar, Stephen Leiberger, Ludowick Dettenburn, John Peter Ccoher, Michael Becker, Kaspar Stump, Jacob

Becker, Bartholomew Shaver, Tobias Pickle, Peter Rutt, George Klein, Paul Tittenhoffer, Mathias Tise, George Ludowick Horst, Sebastian Graeff, John Henry Bassler, Mathias Yung, Jacob Schlough, Henry Michael Immel, Felix Miller, Martin Weybrecht, Frederick Eigelberger, Sebastian Fink, Hans Adam Shreiner, Christian Lang, Caspar Fillar, Anthony Bretter, Hans Graff, Theophilus Hartman, Jr., Benjamin Witmer, Abraham Witmer, Johannes Binkley, Turst Buckwalter, Henry Neaf, Jr., Valentine Hergelrat, Henry Bassler, John Stettler, Leonhard Romler, Leonhard Heyer, Peter Schell, John Nohaker, Michael Knoppenheffer, Christian Leman, George Unrook, Jacob Sheffer, Valentine Keffer, Jacob Etshberger, Herman Walburn, Casper Reed, Christian Ley, Jacob Lower, Hans Moor, Johannes Blum, George Steitz, Erasmus Bluckenmeyer,George Graff; "being all of the Protestant or Reformed religion, and subjects of the Emperor of Germany, and other provinces now in amity with the King of Great Britain; every one of them was by this Act declared citizens, and all the immunities enjoyed by natural liege subjects, were to be enjoyed by them." (Rupp 271.)

1738—Another Small Influx of Germans.

Rupp, in his history of Lancaster County, page 273, says that about this year, many immigrants from the Palatinate settled in Brecknock Township. Among these were Jacob Guth, who erected the first grist mill; John Mussleman and Francis Diller, who erected the first distillery in Brecknock; Jacob Schneder, and Francis Eckert, Herman Deis, Christopher Waldhauer, William Morris and some others. This marks the opening of the northeast section of Lancaster County settlements, namely, old Brecknock Township. The number of taxables about this time were 2560, in Lancaster County.

1738—Settling of Another Lot of Palatines.

In the Pa. Gazette of Oct. 26, 1738, contains this item. "Last Saturday arrived here, the ship Davy from Holland with Palatines.

The Captain with both mates and one hundred and sixty passengers died on the passage and the Carpenter brought in the vessel. Most of the ships which bring Dutch passengers this year, have been visited with a sickness that has carried away a great number of Swiss.

We see by this, why a pest house or a similar method of quarantine was so badly needed. This ship had to be brought in by the Carpenter and apparently very few passengers were left.

Turning to Volume 17, Second Ser. of Pa. Archives, page 169, we find that this ship "Davy" was not Dutch, but German; and came from Amsterdam. The list of passengers given in the records number 94.

We observe that two-thirds of the number died on the passage.

Among the ordinary county names in this ship we find such as Kunzler, Long, Shearer, Thomas Seber, Myers, Stein, Kellar, Frey, Wise, Fehl,Shrum, Kinzer, Subert, Khehr, Snyder, Moore, Reichert, Hoffman, Beck, Lantsinger, Wetzel, Lantz, Stoltz and others.

We see, therefor, that the sufferers mentioned in this item were ancestors of people actually living in this county today.

1738 — Great Percentage of German Swiss Immigrants Died En Route.

From the records we have shown of the several ships names, whose catastrophes we were able to describe, because, of the meager accounts of ancient newspapers, still on file, we are able to calculate how many thousands of those who started for America from Amsterdam and Rotterdam between the years 1700 and 1750 never reached America; but died at sea and were buried in its waters.

We cited the case of the ship that had 150 on board and arrived here with only 50 persons; and another case where one-half of the crew were lost and one-half of the passengers died; and of the ship Davy, just mentioned in which, out of 254, fully 160 were lost and only 94 reached shore.

There were many others, no doubt, in which 50 to 100 died on the voyage and no note was ever made of them. It is therefore safe to say, that the 30,000 German Swiss immigrants who arrived here from the year 1700 until the times reaching up to the Revolutionary War may not have been more than two-thirds or three-fourths of those who started to reach America. That is to say, it is wholly likely that out of nearly 45,000 or 50,000 immigrants who set sail for America in that time, 15,000 to 20,000 of them died on the voyage by diseases, hardships and exposure. And perhaps, many entire ship loads of them went down, of which we have no record in America at all. Those 30,000 who arrived here during that time, may simply be survivors of a list of nearly 50,000 who started.

1739—Ship Records for This Year.

During this year, we find 8 ship loads of these German Swiss people. Among the common Lancaster County names we find the following:

2 Adams—3 Beckers—2 Bachmans —3 Diehls—2 Gables—4 Hoffmans—3 Klines—8 Millers—2 Smiths—4 Snyders—2 Swenks—2 Stouts—2 Thomases—2 Wolfes—2 Webers and 2 Weidmans.

We also find one each of the following:

Albert, Burkhart, Brenner, Barr, Cook, Christian, Dorwart, Engle, Fisher, Frey, Fox, Gerhart, Good, Hess, Kramer, Moore, Martin, Neff, Roth, Reisser, Ream, Schaeffer, Shearer, Swartz, Strauss, Weaver, Welchans, Wolpert and Zimmerman.

These German-Swiss people came in the Ship "Bilander London" — John Pipon Commander; "Jamaica Galley" —Robert Harrison, Commander; "Snow Betsy"—Richard Buden, Commander; "Samuel" — Hugh Percy, Commander; "Robert and Alice" — Walter Goodman, Commander; "Friendship"—William Vittery, Commander; "Loyal Judith" — Edward Painter, Commander, and "Lydia"— James Allen, Commander.

1739—Many Inhabitants of Lancaster and Philadelphia Petition to be Naturalized.

In Vol. 3, Votes of Assembly, p. 334, a large number of our ancestors set forth their desire for naturalization and this action as well as the general situation in Pennsylvania on the subject of German Swiss immigration the Assembly represented to Hon. Thomas Penn as follows:

To the Honorable Thomas Penn:

The address of Representative of Freeman of said province showeth:

That we have received sundry petitions from a great number of inhabitants of Philadelphia and Lancaster Counties, which we take the liberty to lay before the Proprietor setting forth the great straits they and their families will be reduced to and the inconveniency that will arise to many others though not under their circumstances, if those poor people should be removed from their present habitations at the time limited by the proprietor's advertisement of November 23 last:

Though some of these people have most unwarrantably possessed themselves of your lands and others of them very much failed in their duty in complying with their contracts, yet we hope the Proprietor will be pleased to have compassion upon their present circumstances and rather impute their falling short in that justice which they owe to your Honorable family, to their necessities and want of knowledge and due consideration, rather than a disregard and contempt of your right or authority.

And as we are of the opinion that the greatest part of these people, under the circumstances mentioned in said advertisements, may in time become useful inhabitants,—We humbly request our Proprietor to take their unhappy condition into his consideration, and allow them such further time, under such limitations as the Proprietor shall judge reasonable, in order to pay for and get their titles to their lands confirmed; and this house, will in a proper time, readily join with the Governor in any Act that may be judged necessary, as well as for protecting the property of the Proprietor and others from such unjust intrusions in the future, and for the preservation of the Peace of the Government, as for guarding against the danger which may arise from the great and frequent importation of foreigners; and by these means we hope the Proprietor's interest will be much advanced and the poor people much relieved.

We shall see that the wish of these people was gratified.

1739—Lancaster County Ancestors Naturalized.

May 19, of this year, the following residents of Lancaster County were naturalized, Michael Albert, William Albert, Leonhart Bender, George Miller, John Bushong, Nicholas Camile, John Hagey, Charles Kellar, Stephen Remsberger, Ludowick Dettenburn, Jacob Bair, Jr., John Leiberger, Bartholomew Shaver, Caspar Stump, Jacob Becker, Tobias Pickle, Peter Rutt, George Kline, Paul Tittenhoffer, Mathias Tise, George Ludowick, Sebastian Graff, John Henry Basseler, Mattheas Yung, Jacob Shloug, Henry Michael Immel, Felix Miller, Martin Weybrecht, Fredrick Eigelberger, Sebastian Fink, Hans Adam Shreiner, Christian Long, Caspar Tiller, Anthony Bretter, Leonhart Ellmaker, Andreas Bersinger, Hans Graff, Jacob Hartman, Theopolis Hartman, Jr., Benjamin Witmer, Adam Witmer, Johannes Binkley, Turst Buckwalter, Henry Neaff, Jr., Valentine Heargelrat, Henry Basseler, Johan Stetler, Leonhart Romler, Leonhart Heyer, Peter Shell, Johan Nohaker, Nicholas Miller, Johan Hock, Thomas Koppenheffer, Christian Leeman, George Unrook, Jacob Shaffer, Valentine Keefer, Jacob Etshberger, Herman Walburn, Caspar Reed, Christian Manusmith, Nicholas Cutts, George Weyrick, Christopher Ley, Jacob Lower, Hans Moor, John Blum, George Steitz, Erasmus Buckenmeyer, and George Groff. These 78 names are all familiar ones down to this day. It is quite a satisfaction to know the date when they were thus granted full citizenship. They are spoken of in the record as of the Protestant or Reformed religion and are stated to have been subjects of the Emperor of Germany and other princes in amity with Great Britain.

At the same time a long list of Germans or Swiss of Philadelphia were naturalized. They are as follows:

Johannes Dylander, Christian Grassold, Henry Shocklier, Michael Jansen Halling, Daniel Steinmetz, Johannes Smith, David Deshler, Hans George Passage, David Seesholtz, Stephen Greiff, Hans George Hickner, Sebastian Mirry, Rudolph Bonner, Baltzazae Ressler, Jr., Joannes Zacharias, Charles Benzel, Jr., Daniel Macjnd, Jr., Justis Reeb-Camp, Charles Reeb-Camp, Jacob Gallete, Anthony Hinkle, Peter Righter, William Rerig, Henry Stouz, Christopher Roab, Caspar Singer, Ludowick Knauss, William Hauke, Leonhart Hartline, Michawl Kline, Leonhart Kristler, Johannes Wilhelm, Ludowick Cirkel, Ludowick Hinnige, George Cressman, Fredrick Gotshall, Andreas Trombourger, Jacob Troumberger, Hartman Detterman, Philip Enghert, Jacob Coob, Henry Deinig, Johan Ditterig Bauman, Johan Kleim, Fredrick Marstaller, Mathias Koplin, Johannes Bender, Henry Deeringer, Adam Moser, Peter Jarger, Jacob Aister, Samuel Gooldin, Hans George Jarger, Andreas Kepler, Jacob Frey, Christopher Witman, Andreas Geisberts, Benedictus Muntz, John Eigster, Michael Herger, Philip Frederick Hillengas, Philip Labar, Michael Knappenberger, Michael Dotterer, George Hubner, Herman Fisher, Conrad Kolb, George Philip Dotterer, Johan Miller, Jacob Freeh, Henry Smith, Leonhart Smith, Rowland Smith, Michael Kraus, Daniel Kreestman, Abraham Beyer, Michael Good, George Good, Henry Snyder, Adam Reed, Christopher Ottinger, Anthony Jager, Nicolaus Jager, John Henry Weeber, Johan Jacob Roth, Johannes Geldbaugh, and Christian Gondy.

No doubt many of these are the ancestors of the great flourishing Mennonite Church of the City of Philadelphia, which is (among others) under the jurisdiction of that enterprising and learned father of the faith, Bishop N. B. Grubb. (See record of this naturalization in Vol. 4, St. L., p. 326.) This is the fruit of the petition set forth in the preceding item.

1739—German Swiss Ancestors Not Able To Pay Their Passage.

We have noticed in prior articles, that some of our German Swiss ancestors were held occasionally for their passage money. This difficulty they seemed to encounter continually. In the Pa. Gazette of April 19, 1739, it is stated, that "Whereas sundry Palatines are indebted for their freights in the under mentioned ships and sundry others have given their notes and bonds which have long been due; they are desired to take notice that if they do any longer neglect to come and pay their respective debts unto Benjamin Shoemaker living in High Street they may expect to be prosecuted according to law.

The ships are as follows:

The Ship Hope, Daniel Reed commander—Ship Samuel, Hugh Percy commander—Ship Mercury, William Wilson commander—Ship Princess Augusta, Samuel Marchant commander—Ship Virtuous Grace, John Bull commander—Ship Harle, Ralph Harle commander—Ship Winter Galley, Edward Painter commander—Ship Queen Elizabeth, Alexander Hope commander—Ship Glascow, Walter Sterling commander and the Ship Friendship, Henry Berch commander.

We can easily gather from this, that poverty was pretty generally the common lot of the earliest forefathers of Lancaster County. Of course, they had opportunity ahead for making money and did make money; but they began in face pinching poverty.

1739—The Dangers of Wagoning to Philadelphia.

In the Pa. Gazette of October 25, 1739, there is an account as follows:

"On the 20th inst. as one Willmouth Brackbill, a Palatine, was driving a team on the Conestoga Road, he stepped out of the fore part of the

Dear Carolyn,

I had an Amos James DYE living in Milton, Wayne Co. 1830 Census.
There were both Day & Dye listings in that census, and of course both names could be related. Census takers were poor spellers at best.
I cannot find any connections for my Amos at all. I do have family story which cannot be reconciled to facts I find.
Do you have your Day family that far back, and would you like to do a little collaborating? I am sure it would help you too. I am experienced researcher.
Happy Days,
Diane G.

Subject: Days Family

Posted by: Gayle Cook

Message: While going through the message board I came across this message. My Grandfather Lewis H. Days was born in July 1861. He married a woman named Addie. His father is Ben Days, I hear Ben was born in Pennsylvania. Lewis died in Ashly In, 91942. Is there any connection?

Subject: Days in OH

Posted by: Chad Days

Message: I have a Lewis Days that was born in IN in 1860. His father was Benjamin Days married to Jane Holmes, both born in OH about 1830's. I am still looking for more info on Ben. I don't know if he is related to Syvester or not.
